

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Lee Sue has a notice in this issue.

C. Bosse has a notice in this issue.

Drill of the mounted reserve this afternoon.

The Mokoli arrived at 1:30 this morning.

Notice of a proposed night school appears in this issue.

Robert Catton has the agency for Costa's coffee pulpers.

Usual Saturday afternoon concert at Emma Square today.

The meeting shed at Kawaiahao church is being torn down.

Teachers' examination for primary grade on January 3d and 4th.

The Kahuku Plantation Company elected its officers yesterday.

C. Brewer & Co. advertise a lot of vehicles of superior make for sale.

The Christmas vacations in the public schools will begin December 20th.

A list of officers of the Union Feed Company is published in another column.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder, registered at the Grand Hotel, Yokohama, Japan, on November 4th.

The Pacific Tennis Club and other invited guests will meet on the Beretania Tennis Club grounds this afternoon.

The Sans Souci hotel advertises elegant accommodations for guests, either in the main building or in detached cottages.

And now the H. A. A. C. boys are talking of a one-mile novice road race. They do not mean to allow the sport to drop.

Mrs. George Barker, a resident of Kuku street, was found dead in bed at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Death resulted from heart failure.

Commissioner Marsden was besieged all day yesterday by persons after permits for the trees which the Government is distributing free.

The employees of the Nichols-Wall Stationery Co. worked late last night in getting their largest stock in order for the opening, December 2d.

Peruvian Bitters need no endorsement. It has no equal as a tonic. The Hobron Drug Company sell it. Try a bottle and brace up.

The telephone gang engaged in the reconstruction of lines in the vicinity of Waialua have moved their camp to the first gulch from town at Ewa.

The corner of the Hotel fence, opposite Central Union Church, is in a dilapidated state. Query—"Have any more wandering wagonettes been near?"

It is getting quite the fad for bicyclists to wear buttons upon which are stamped the names of their favorite wheels. Some of these are quite artistic.

One case of drunkenness was registered at the police station last night. The policemen are sighing for better times. Their muscles are becoming flabby.

Will T. Dorrance, formerly connected with the San Francisco Examiner, has accepted a position as business manager of The Time. The paper will be issued Tuesday.

For four days previous to the departure of the W. G. Hall from Punaluu, rain came down in such torrents at Kapapala ranch that it was impossible to go out of the house.

If the attendance at the rooms of the Kilohana Art League continues to be like that of yesterday, the league will have quite a comfortable sum in the treasury at the end of the exhibition.

Mrs. M. T. Bluxome has reopened the dressmaking parlors at J. J. Egan's, where she will be pleased to meet her old patrons and the public in general. Wash dresses will be a specialty.

It is rumored that the Eagle House and the Queen Hotel, both on Nuuanu street, are to be opened in a short time by W. H. Rice, Jr., of Lihue, at present manager of the Fairview Hotel at that place.

The Y. M. C. A. and Christian Endeavor Society will hold a joint meeting tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock. Topic, "Praise and Promise." The Christian Endeavor Quartet and Miss Grace Richards will sing.

The ring tournament which the H. A. A. C. declared to have in connection with the Thanksgiving football game has been declared off. It is feared that the grounds would be badly cut up by any such sport. There will be a number of disappointed boys who were looking forward to breaking all previous records.

The Christian Church.

Now that the church building for Rev. T. D. Garvin's congregation is completed, the services in future will be held in the new building near the corner of Alakea and King. As the indebtedness on the building is not great, the church with the help of friends will take care of the debt without calling for any financial aid from the congregation at the opening service. This seems like an innovation where the denomination is a new one.

Band Concert.

Emma Square residents will be accorded the pleasure of one of the Hawaiian band's concerts at 4:30 this afternoon. Following is the program:

1. Overture—"King's Lieutenant".....Titl
 2. March—"Tabaco".....Chadwick
 3. Selection—"The Gaiety Girl".....Jones
 4. Fantasia—"Ben Bolt".....Brode
 5. Dance—"Manzanillo".....Rosas
 6. Waltz—"Beautiful Blue Danube".....Strauss
- "Hawaii Pono!"
